train and laugh
as the day
ends,

TR

train and study,

I'm
poking the seeds
neatly with forefinger,
straight furrows queuing
into my throat

I'm
in training, I
laugh
as the day ends
I am training

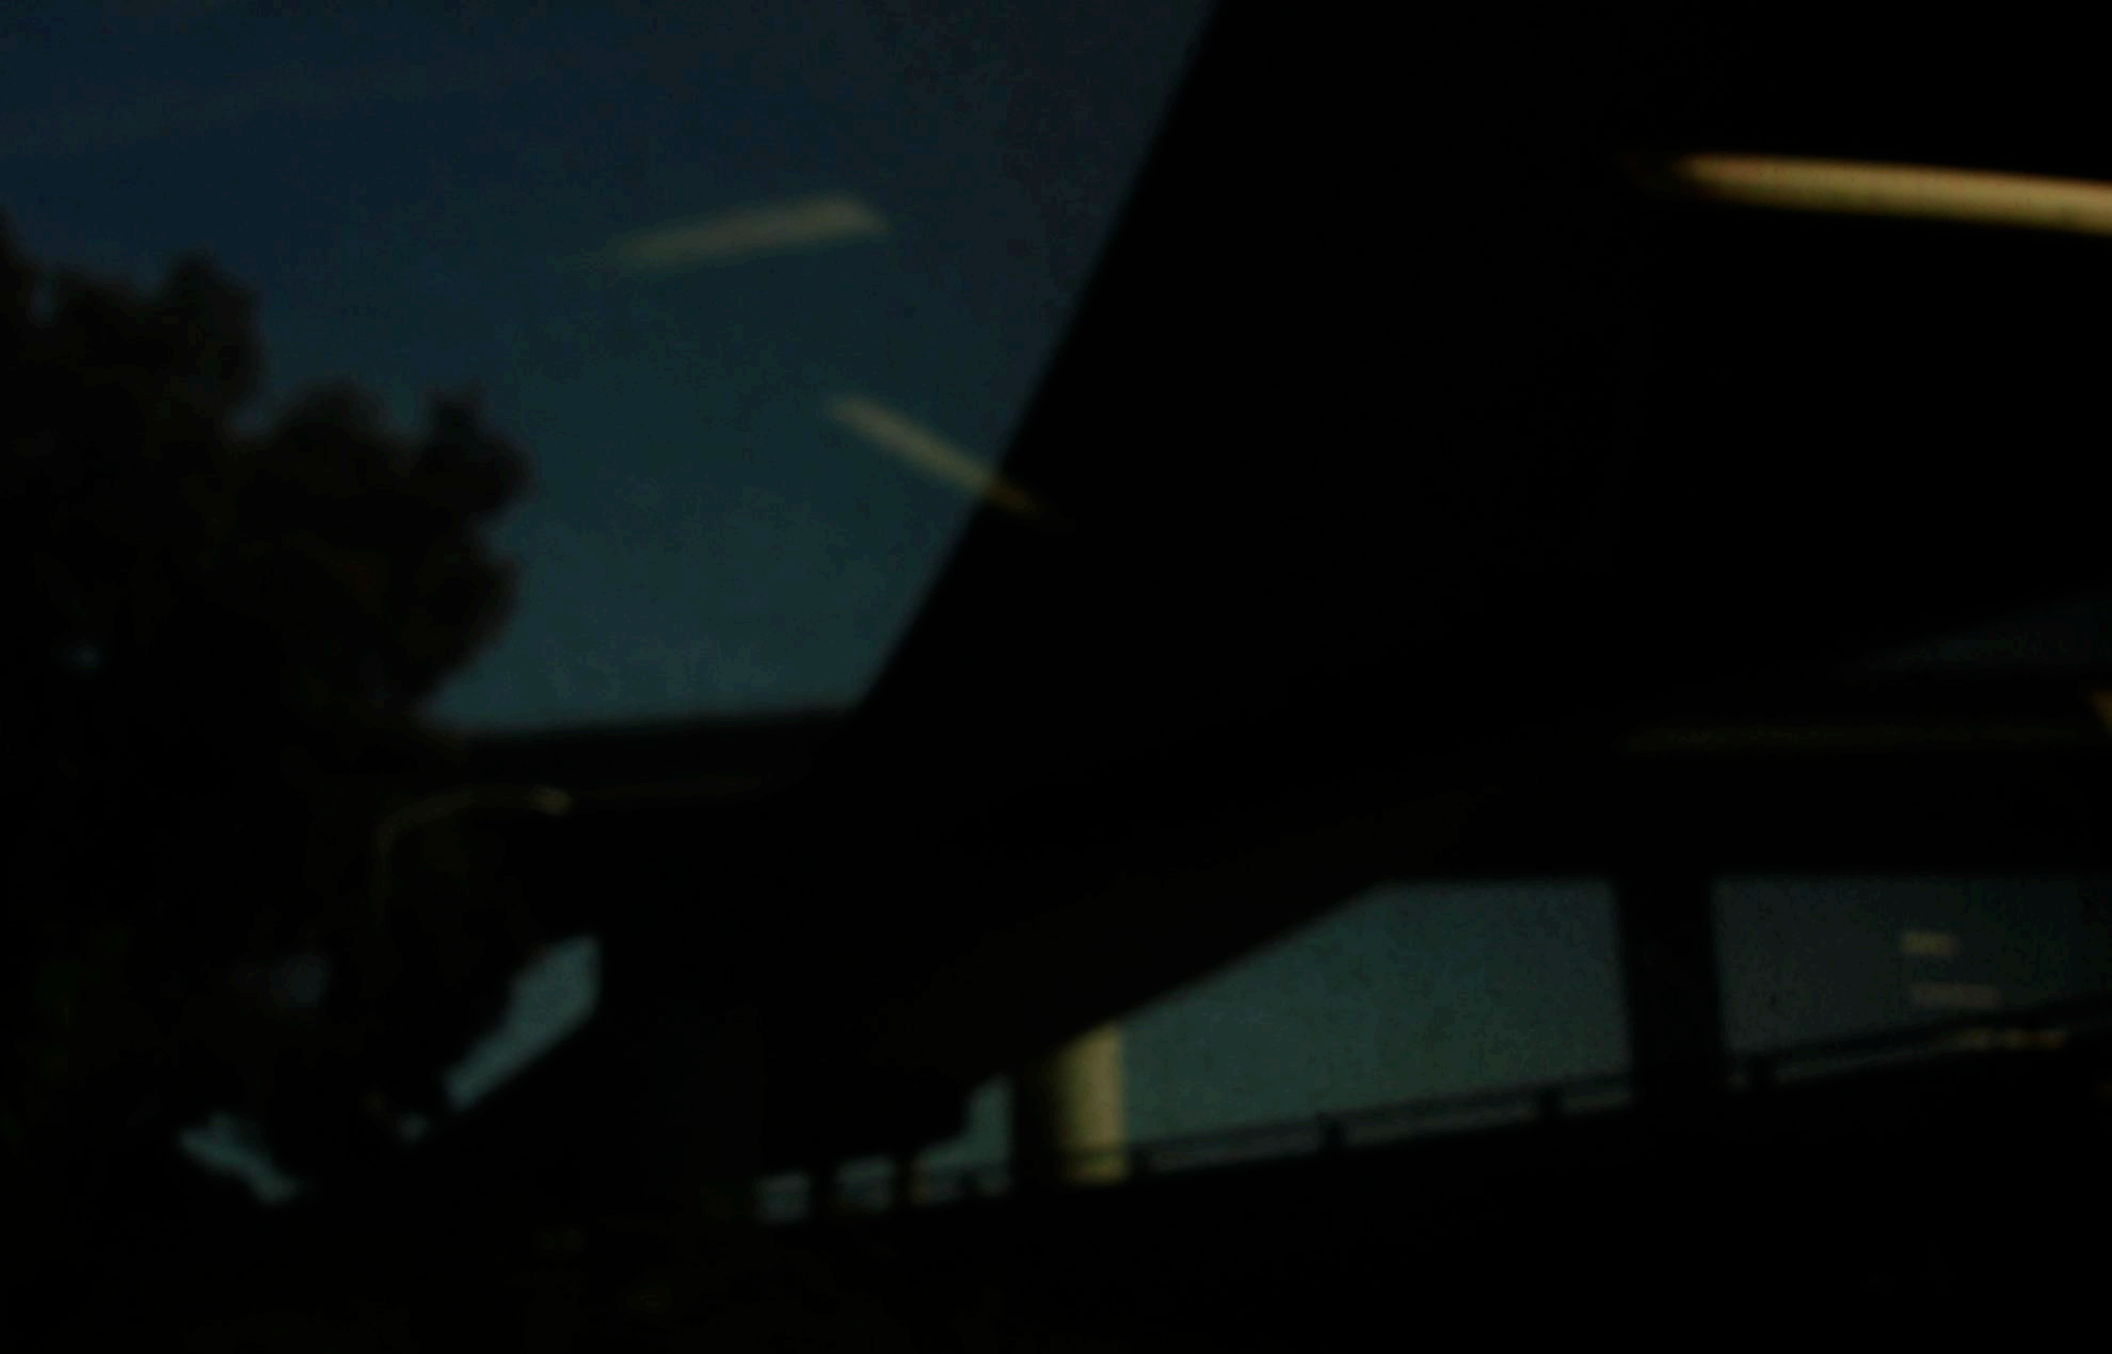

and I study

the seeds I'm poking

they stand in queues

waiting,

they laugh,

as if tickled by my business-like finger pointing and directing

they're in training

as I am

straight finger poking,

the day

near its ending

the seeds

I must study

the train,

it is laughing
